

MICHAEL LOGOZAR

“Logozar” pronounced: LO - go - zar

“It’s hard to say where the instrument ends and the heart begins...”

- Broadjam review

Award winning Austin, TX based solo pianist and composer Michael Logozar delivers heartfelt piano melodies with a rare level of artistry and emotion.

Classically trained from childhood, Michael spent time recording and producing other artists before deciding to share his own brand of contemporary instrumental piano music with the world.

Michael is an active member of the Whisperings community of pianists, performing across the country and also hosting shows with other artists in the Austin area.

Reviews:

“Michael Logozar has the rare gift of melody. I say rare because while there are a million pianists out there who can play, there are far fewer who can actually craft a song that you sing along with in your heart every time you hear it....and he writes those kinds of songs. Almost every one of them is a perfect gem.”

- David Nevue, founder of Whisperings Solo Piano Radio

“Many musicians play from the heart (or claim to), but when an artist has the playing chops to do whatever his composer’s heart wants to express, it makes such a compelling difference...definitely a candidate for my 2013 Favorites list... Very Highly Recommended!”

- Kathy Parsons, Mainly Piano

“With songs that reach deep into your soul and with masterful compositions, Time is one of the few solo piano albums you can enjoy in full from beginning to end....highly recommended.”

- Alejandro Clavijo, Reviews New Age (translation)

“In Time, he gives another sterling performance of his own brand of solo piano...Michael seems to be able to share his discoveries on an aural plane where everyone who hears his music can readily understand, but more importantly relate. I am a fan.”
