Darci Chowen

Account Executive at NetApp

“ Michael is extremeley knowledgeable in his field. It is very difficult to find qualified 'messaging' expertise and Michael is definitely at the top in his field.

In addition, Michael is capable of dealing with all aspects of a project. He is great with management as well as technical staff.

I always welcome the opportunity to have Michael on my project.

Warren Strange

Principal Systems Engineer at ForgeRock

“ I have worked with Michael several times over the last 5 years, and he has always been a consummate professional. He has very deep skills (LDAP, Solaris, Identity Management, etc.), and displays a ton of integrity. He is excellent communicator, and possesses superior people skills - making him an ideal consultant. I would not hesitate to recommend Michael, and I look forward to working with him extensively in the future. less

André Courchesne

Senior Manager - Enterprise Architecture at Banque Nationale du Canada

“ Michael is one of the top performers I have had the chance to work with. His expertise is broad and deep, his capacity to summarize excellent and his analysis of the political landscape uncommon. Frank, open, transparent, Michael is a must have colleague on any team.

His value to any/all endeavor is rapidly perceived as Michael gets engaged in the initiative.

May 9, 2013, André was with another company when working with Michael at Sun Microsystems

Daniel Liston

Consulting Technical Manager at Oracle

“ Michael is a shining star in all the projects I have worked on before, while, or after Michael has been on scene. His work is detailed, documentation precise, and designs brilliant! I look forward to future projects with Michael, he is a winner!

Roland Davis

Senior Consultant at Azimuth Labs

“ Michael has been in the business of delivering Service Provider Communications solutions for years and has worked on a wide variety of mail and directory projects. I find Michael is extremely thorough and combined with experience, Michael is often called in to rescue or work on some of the largest email projects. When at Sun, we had no issues in recommending Michael to our customers - we knew the job would get done and get done properly. His understanding of the product capabilities was essential in steering customers away from potential problems and towards a stable and performant email platform. In terms of working with Michael, he is very level headed and always asks the right questions to determine the best outcome for his customers. less

Ron Lamarche

Technical Consultant, Directory Server Prime at Innovapost

“ It was my distinct pleasure to work with Michael in 2009 on a successful large scale messaging/Directory solution for Verizon. I was truly impressed with his depth of knowledge, technical expertise and resourcefulness in all aspects of architecture implementation and design .

In addition to this he successfully managed an entire team while still designing and documenting detailed functional testing and acceptance testing criteria based on his vast experience.

I would highly recommend Michael in any comms practice role .He has consistently demonstrated his expertise in this area. less

Tiffany Strause

Strategist at Hewlett-Packard, seeking new opportunities

“ I had the pleasure of working with Michael while I was at Sun Microsystems, where we were heavily dependent on our partners to expand our reach and ability to deliver. Michael was always very responsive to me and to my end customer, and was able to quickly grasp the scope of work and the most expeditious and technically sound way to address the requirements. I had many customers that requested to work with him specifically for their projects. In addition to being a consummate professional, I found Michael to be very down to earth and personable, which made working with him a true pleasure. He would be an incredible asset to any team, should they be lucky to have him aboard! less

Derek Kunz

Senior Business Systems Advisor at FortisAlberta

“ Michael is someone I would work with again without reservation. I highly recommend him both for his work capabilities and for his character.

May 3, 2007, Derek was Michael's client

Lorrie Puchala

Recruiter at OBOX Solutions

“ We were very fortunate to have had Michael work on several projects for us and he was awesome!

He was able to develop strong relationships with both our Clients and his co-workers, and he always delivered what he promised (and then some). This often led to repeat business. He was also not afraid to tackle issues that were outside his primary area of expertise; but, he knew his limitations, and wouldn't agree to do something unless he was quite confident that he could achieve excellent results.

It was a pleasure dealing with Michael because he was very well organized, and extremely responsive to all questions and requests for information.

His expertise in the integration of Sun software products and services with a focus on Messaging and LDAP / Identity Infrastructures, Solaris, and web-based systems, combined with the attributes listed above, enabled Michael to do an amazing job on each project he was involved in. less
